

::Foster participation

Details

The Tunisian Association for the Defense of Children's Rights became convinced that the real evolution of the situation cannot be achieved only with the involvement of children, their families and society as a whole. They are our key players in their own development.

Children will be involved for example in the production of documents related to the promotion of child rights. With the help of volunteers and experts, children will write some media by themselves. Thus, they acquire a better understanding of the challenges of their future.

Participation of media and children

The media represents effective, practical and fun tools. Indeed, the media allow children to spread the information they have prepared themselves. These real media become effective media of awareness and training by children for children.

This is why the association launched since its inception, the network dubbed "Journalist Friend of Children"
